

Blood Ties Four Directions Centre is seeking to fill the full-time term position (May 2015 to March 2017)

Rural Partnership Coordinator

The Rural Partnership Coordinator

- delivers interactive culturally relevant workshops in rural Yukon First Nation communities designed to address HIV, Hepatitis C, and STI risk, harm reduction and addiction
- supports First Nation health departments in increasing their capacity to meet the health prevention and support needs of members of their community in the areas of HIV/HepC/STI prevention, harm reduction and addiction
- works strategically and collaboratively with rural Yukon First Nation communities to reduce stigma associated with HIV, Hepatitis C, and addiction
- Delivers HIV/HepC prevention & awareness education in rural Yukon schools

The ideal candidate has:

- post-secondary education in the field of education, social services, or health.
- experience coordinating & delivering educational projects in a variety of settings
- experience in providing advocacy to vulnerable populations
- excellent communication skills both oral and written
- knowledge of Yukon First Nations history and culture

This position involves extensive travel throughout the Yukon. Candidates must be willing and able to travel several days per month throughout the project period.

This rewarding and challenging position is a full-time 2-year position from approx. May 15, 2015 to March 31, 2017.

Salary: $22 to $27 per hour (35 hours per week), plus extended health benefits and all travel related costs while working in Yukon rural communities (accommodations, meals, vehicle/fuel, etc.).

Please send your resume and cover letter via email to:

Patricia Bacon, Executive Director
Blood Ties Four Directions Centre
executivedirector@bloodties.ca

Application deadline: March 31, 2015