

Community Development With Marginalized Communities

With Nicole Latham

Thursdays,
Nov. 1 – Dec. 6
2012

6:30-9:30pm

Course Highlights

- Learn diverse definitions and historical perspectives on community development
- Understand the distinction between community development and service provision
- Examine ways to make change in your organization and workplace

How can community development be more inclusive and accessible to marginalized communities? This course explores the theory and practice of community development in marginalized communities, with the opportunity for you to reflect on your work environment. We will address concepts such as empowerment, diversity, inclusivity, accessibility and democracy in relation to your practice and work context.

Nicole Latham is a community educator and activist with substantive experience facilitating community development initiatives with marginalized communities. Her most recent and extensive work is with drug users in Vancouver's downtown eastside and communities across BC.

Registration and Information

Fee: $225

To register: call Langara College Continuing Studies at 604.323.5322 (quote CRN70247) www.langara.bc.ca/continuing-studies

If cost is an issue, contact Sonja Embree at 604.323.5931 or sembree@langara.bc.ca. No one will be turned away for lack of funds.

Community Development With Marginalized Communities

With Nicole Latham

Thursdays,
Nov. 1 – Dec. 6
2012

6:30-9:30pm

Course Highlights

- Learn diverse definitions and historical perspectives on community development
- Understand the distinction between community development and service provision
- Examine ways to make change in your organization and workplace

How can community development be more inclusive and accessible to marginalized communities? This course explores the theory and practice of community development in marginalized communities, with the opportunity for you to reflect on your work environment. We will address concepts such as empowerment, diversity, inclusivity, accessibility and democracy in relation to your practice and work context.

Nicole Latham is a community educator and activist with substantive experience facilitating community development initiatives with marginalized communities. Her most recent and extensive work is with drug users in Vancouver's downtown eastside and communities across BC.

Registration and Information

Fee: $225

To register: call Langara College Continuing Studies at 604.323.5322 (quote CRN70247) www.langara.bc.ca/continuing-studies

If cost is an issue, contact Sonja Embree at 604.323.5931 or sembree@langara.bc.ca. No one will be turned away for lack of funds.