CARLA RIEGER is an expert on creative change management--- helping people build habits that keep them vital and effective. She is the director of The Artistry of Change, a consulting firm based in Vancouver since 1991. She has written four books on change, humor, creativity and conflict resolution, and is a regular columnist for several publications. In addition, she has over 15 years experience in the performing arts, specifically comedy. She has spoken to over 1500 groups internationally of up to 4000 people. As a frequent speaker, trainer, author and coach, Carla helps people around the world stay in high performance states even during the “groan zone” of change.
