

Positive Leadership Development Institute (PLDI)

“Who am I as a Leader?”

October 26-29, 2023 (In-person training)

Positive Leadership Development Institute

Words of a past participant:

" This has been transformative, uplifting, empowering, inspiring, and fun. "

SCAN QR CODE

PLDI exists with the purpose of supporting people who are living with HIV/AIDS realize their leadership potential.

PLDI Core Leadership Training supports people living with HIV (PLHIV) to realize their individual leadership potential and helps to strengthen a network of PLHIV leaders in British Columbia. PLDI is a program within PAN (Pacific AIDS Network)

Training Dates: October 26-29, 2023

Training Location: held in-person over that long weekend- Downton Vancouver Coast Coal Harbour Vancouver Hotel

Core Leadership Training seeks to answer the question: “Who am I as a Leader?”

The three main goals of the training are:

1. To identify personal values and philosophy;
2. To develop leadership skills and practices;
3. To gain community knowledge and awareness.

The deadline for applications is Tuesday October 3, 2023 @ 4:00 PM.

There is no registration fee for the Core training- Who Am I as a Leader? PAN is very proud to have received funding from the Public Health Agency of Canada (PHAC) to continue its work with the PLDI program. Cost of accommodations, meals & transportation* covered for successful applicants.

For more details please visit: PLDI.ca to apply online.

Not open to those who have already taken PLDI Core Training – Who am I as a Leader?

For more info contact: Marc marc@paninbc.ca or at (604) 569-1998 and leave a message.

